HOBBY LOBBY®

SANTORINI DREAM

Scroll to the cover for a waterfront view of this beach house! From a sparkling ocean (resin) and a seashell-covered shoreline (filler sand) to a living space reminiscent of sunny beach days, this home checks all the boxes for the perfect coastal stay.

Firepit: Create a box with balsa wood, cover with coarse texture medium, add mosaic pebbles, and top with cellophane “flames.”

Mirror: Wrap jute around two steel rings for a custom frame.

Tabletop: Resin, coaster mold, seashells, sea glass.

MOROCCAN HAVEN

These green-and-white tiles may be tiny, but they add BIG character (and color) to this Moroccan scene—while terracotta walls, checkered flooring and little details like miniature potted plants bring Mediterranean charm.

Deep-pour epoxy works best for filling large areas like swimming pools. Once it's set, top off the look with UV resin—since you control when it cures, it's the easiest to manipulate into ripples and splashes that imitate moving water.

Add a glossy, dimensional appearance to paper tiles with UV resin. Or brush them with chalk paint for a lived-in look!

CIAO BELLA!

Handcrafted elements, like textured stone features (foam board, wood burning tool, paint), add Old-World realism, while readymade miniature greenery and customized dollhouse furniture bring this little Tuscan oasis to life.

DIY'd: bedding, pillows, candles (trimmed hot glue sticks), rug, painted books.

OUTDOOR RETREAT

This little home went from humble A-frame cabin to dream-worthy outdoor sanctuary all thanks to mini glamping accessories: cascading string lights, a metal BBQ grill, painted patio furniture, and an itty-bitty front door wreath.

This walnut-stained kitchenette, reupholstered leather loveseat and tiny lofted bedroom are all about the cozy cabin vibes.

Bonus: Add hinges to the roof so it can open for your big reveal!

OUTDOOR RETREAT CONT.

Dial up the charm on your cozy model with little lived-in details like delicate potted plants, working miniature lanterns, stunning skylight windows and personalized accents (hello, handmade moose décor!) for that rustic, cabin-in-the-woods feel.
