

Spaces for Vases ▲

Here's a bright idea! Wrap ribbon around glass cylinders in a woven pattern (securing with hot glue), then tuck in floral picks. For the inside, pour in filler crystals and water and finish off with an LED candle.

A Place for Vase ▶

Dress up pilsner vases as wedding table centerpieces with a little help from layered sand, gorgeous faux florals and gold leaf (brushed onto the outside of the container).

Tip: Gently stir the sand horizontally to mix the colors into a marbled effect.

Vase Paint

Add extra dramatic flair to a celebrity vase with acrylic paint and gold liquid leaf. You can start with a pattern (like these swooping scales) or just begin painting to see where your brush will take you! Be sure to seal the piece with matte decoupage medium.

Time to go boho! Apply removable iron-on designs to glass vases, brush on a few coats of chalk paint, remove the iron-ons, and coat the inside of the vases with paint too. Embellish them with wood beads and dried florals to finish off the earthy, natural look.

About Vase ▶

You can elevate a short vase by creating a handmade stand out of painted dowel rods (left). And you can create the illusion of a stand by simply painting the bottom third of a tall vase (right). Wrap the vases with jute and raffia and you have a cohesive display.
