BREAD WINNER

When crocheting a bread basket like this, combining yarn is what's on the menu! The basket is single crocheted with three strands of yarn to give it a stronger, tighter structure.

HOME RUN

If you're making a project that needs extra weight and thickness, like this table runner, use the double-stranded yarn technique. This method can also be used as a stand-in for heavier yarns.

TOTE-ALLY COOL

The perfectly neat edge around this market bag is all thanks to the foundation single crochet stitch. It also gives the edge of the bag more elasticity than a regular chain stitch would.

RING BEARER

Keep your dinner parties nice and knit with DIY napkin rings. To get this look, you'll need to be familiar with cable stitches (both front and back) and the basic purl stitch.

PERFECT PLACE

Cotton yarn is a great choice for heavy-use items like these crocheted place mats. Why? It's absorbent (so spills are no match for it) and it's machine washable if spills do occur.
