

Wedding FLORALS

Elevate your wedding décor
WITH THESE FLORAL-FILLED DIYS!

HOBBY LOBBY®

On the Cover:

To give centerpieces a unique pop of color, try incorporating fruit! The oranges come pre-attached to stems, making them easy to place wherever needed.

Something Blue

This DIY is for the detail-lovers! Use decoupage medium to apply tissue paper to a wood container. Once it dries, you'll have a stunning home for your centerpiece!

Find Your Seat

Give your seating chart some floral flair by wrapping gold metal hoops with olive leaf & rosemary garland. Then embellish with floral picks (roses and pampas grass are featured here!).

Tip: Adding gold leaf instantly enhances DIY wedding florals and décor.

Warm Welcome

Dress up a customized welcome display by filling out a eucalyptus, rose & carnation swag with rose & hydrangea mini bouquets and a burgundy peony pick.

Front Runner

Create your dream tablescape with help from this fully customizable step-by-step guide!

Step 1: Add guaze table runner.

Step 2: Add garlands and floral vases.

Step 3: Add candles.

Step 4: Add finishing touches.

Disco Dreams

Peony, ranunculus, rose and dahlia picks bloom from whitewash wood frame centerpieces. Accordion-folded cardstock forms the dazzling details—all for a gift table that keeps on giving!

Set the Scene

Highlighting different textures and colorways from your floral arrangements can totally transform your reception look. The proof: one anemone, rose & peony centerpiece—two gorgeous tablescape!
