

WOOD SIGNS

HOBBY LOBBY®

THIS IS YOUR SIGN TO TRY
DIY Wood Décor

WESTERN WELCOME

Say hello to your next welcome sign! Just glue cowhide and leather to a circle wood shape, trace and burn designs onto the wood and leather with a wood burning tool, and add a bow and dried florals to finish.

Seal your design with a thin layer of decoupage medium before screwing in hooks.

HANG IN THERE

When it comes to style, don't leave your walls hangin'! Adhere patterned paper (design side down) to a slatted wood wall décor piece with decoupage medium, and let it set 24 hours. Then scrub away the paper with a wet towel to reveal the design!

ON THE CLOCK

Interested in trying your hand at a DIY wood wall clock? You'll need a wood tray, clock parts and a wood round (this bird design comes pre-engraved!). Before assembling, stain the wood pieces and add hand-painted designs for an extra bit of beauty!

POCKET SIZED

Maximize your space with vertical wall pockets! The how-to:
Cut basswood sheets to size and frame them with dowels to create the pockets. Glue smaller wood shapes to the pockets, then adhere them along a wood frame at an angle.

GREEN THUMB

These faux succulents are display-ready all thanks to this DIY wooden planter made from an arched wall plaque, an acrylic sheet and a handcrafted wood box. Mimic this look with decorative sand, filler gems and stones, and of course, succulents.

GAME PLAN

Get ahead of the game with a DIY checkerboard! Grab some wood checker pieces (sold in 8 packs), a square wood frame, and a bit of paint to bring this colorful game-night classic to life!

HERE'S YOUR SIGN

From big and bold pieces to intricate shapes and designs, these signs have nailed it when it comes to adding woody flair to DIYs!

On the cover: Vintage-style art: whitewash wood frame, scalloped trim, dowels, muslin fabric.

Tip: Iron a design onto muslin using iron-on transfer sheets for an easy block print lookalike.
