Easy Fall Florals

Simple, elegant and beginner-friendly, each vase features just two kinds of autumn-hued florals.

Large: Canada maple stems and trailing oat seed bushes.

Small: Beige heather bushes and poppy seed picks.

DIY Pumpkin Vase

Classic fall florals and pumpkins go hand in hand. Here, maple leaves, white sunflowers, dahlias and amaranthus sprout from a foam pumpkin. Just cut off its top and carve out a small hole to make room for stems.

Cornucopia

In the market for a fall centerpiece that's sure to wow? Breathe new life into the classic cornucopia with glitter pumpkin picks for glamour and moody autumn florals (orange & burgundy mums, plum & copper leaves) for drama.

Blue Autumn

This chic arrangement brings a cool contrast to the classic warm fall color palette. A center of navy hydrangeas, blackberries and dark blue pompom sprays balances more traditional touches, like plum leaves and pink mums.

Welcome the harvest season to your porch with a DIY fall garland, handmade wreaths and pumpkin decorations.

Mantel Garland

How to make your mantel display a maximalist's dream? Focus on creating fullness. Build volume at the base by wiring half-balls of floral foam to a readymade Cream Berry & Leaf Garland. Then go wild with mums, grasses and gourds galore!

Traditional Arrangement

Three steps to a showstopping floral arrangement:

- 1) Start with your focal blooms (dark red sunflowers).
- 2) Fill in with smaller flowers (mini mums, zinnia, dried hydrangea).
- 3) Finish with long, draping stems (maple leaves, pittosporum, orange berry clusters).

Crate of Pumpkins

Tiered fall décor is a great way to capture the abundance of harvest time while keeping a small footprint. For this display, stack wooden crates, insert floral foam blocks, and arrange pumpkin picks, mums and more. Then cover any gaps with forest moss.

Dual-Season Wreath

Say farewell to summer and hello to fall with a transitional wreath! Mix lush moss and vibrant hydrangeas with harvest staples (sunflowers, pumpkins and maple leaves) for a look that stuns in both seasons.
